A Sociable Grizzly.

Mono county, Cal., is full of mountains, mules, teamsters and grizzlies. The latter roam contentedly about, seeking whom they may devour. A few days ago a Bridgeport teamster, who had in charge an eighteen mule team and a heavy load of freight, was delayed several hours in his progress by a grizzly. He had hauled the heavy wagon to the top of a hill and left the "back action" at the foot. It being about dinner time he left his team and returned to the foot of the hill to take his lunch, and was seated on the load enjoying his frugal repast when there appeared at the rear of the wagon a huge grizzly. The animal saw the teamster on top and walked about surveying the scene. The man on top had no firearms, and was in a moment confident that he was in a state of siege. To get off his load and run was folly, so he sat and surveyed his enemy The bear seemed to enjoy the situation, and was not at all worried. Occasionally he would sit on his haunches and look at the teamster and then content himself by picking up the pieces of lunch thrown to him. In the meantime the teamster grew nervous, fearing that it was a "gone game" with him His wife and children in Carson were thought of, and the trip to Bodie seemed dubious. The animal remained there about two hours, and, concluding that it was of no use to stay walked off to the wooded hills The teamster made for the wagon on the hill, and the few gray hairs that are now seen distributed among his raven locks are attributed to this interview with bruin

A Swarm of Bees Capture a Car

Leavenworth Times

Sunday afternoon when the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific arrived it came in under a cloud A large swarm of bees being attracted by the cool location on the top of the car while near Beaverly, Missouri, took deck passage for sunny Kansas, and the fears of the conductor and other men on the train, or a stinging rebuke prevented any attempt to put the dead heads of. When the car arrived here Police Officer McCart was apprised of the fact that he could take in a number of prisoners if he would visit the car. He went to investigate, and finding the bees snugly ensconced on their novel abiding place, proceeded to effect their capture by coaxing them into an empty keg. He succeeded, after receiving numerous stings, in capturing the entire swarm, taking more prisoners than he will have at any one time while he is on the force He says the family is getting along well at his home in the north part of the city.

MANY people are under the impression that England stands at the head of all the continental nations as regards the number of its periodical publications Such is not the case Germany heads the list with 3,788, England follows with 2,509, and France comes next with 2,000. There is then a great falling off. America boasts 9,129,-being more than the three nations above named put together.

JUST THINK OF IT!

Our Factory and Storehouse is in Chicago!

One of the partners resides in Chicago!

All our Clothing is manufactured by us under his personal supervision!

If any bargain is in the market, he is there to secure it!

The ready cash is always at his disposal!

We buy our material direct from the producer!

We do not buy for one, but for many stores in large quantities, and thus are certain of the Lowest Price!

We sell direct to the consumer for Cash, and do not contract bad debts which have to be made up large profits!!

We return the money if Goods do not give satisfaction!!

WHY, OF COURSE, THESE ARE REASONS ENOUGH WHY IT IS THAT WE SELL LOWER THAN ANY OTHER HOUSE.

1. We have demonstrated the fact of our success by a constant increase of our stock, and by the constant envy of our would-be competitors.

2. We have demonstrated the fact of our permanence by increasing the facilities for selling in proportion as the number of our costumers increased, and that we need now so much room and moved to larger quarters, is as much as a beam in the eye of our competitor.

3 We stay where we have made our success, in the building corner of Water and Main streets, in the block, the name of which has become a by-word in every household in the country—"CHEAP CHARLEY'S CORNER."

4. Although through with No. 1, 2 and 3, we add a 4, and are ready to go on till 13, 14, 15. Now under No. 4 we will explain some of the rules which guide us in business and which added to our success: A—Before all we attend to our own affairs, even so far as to write out our own advertisements—never allow anybody else to do it for us; believing ourselves able to manufacture them, as we manufacture our own clothing. B—We never allow stock to grow old on our hands, and to enable us to keep it fresh assorted at all time, we must do a certain amount of business Now if we open a new branch in a town which proves not to be able to secure it that much trade, we move our stock to another place where we do find it Sometimes we make a mistake in selecting the right town, but that cannot be helped. Among so many good towns in the west must be also some poor ones, like among so many precious good stones, it happens once in the while to find one that is not worth taking notice of

We defy anybody to falsify the above facts.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

The Republican voters of the several townships and election districts, in Macon county are requested to elect delegates to a county convention, to be held at the court house in Decatur, on Thursday, August 5th,

at 10 o'clock a. m. for the following purposes:

1st, To reorganize the county central committee;

2d, To choose delegates to represent Macon county in the legislative convention of the 29th senatorial district, hereafter to be called;

3d, To nominate candidates for clerk of the Circuit Court, Sheriff, Coroner and Prosecuting Attorney, to be voted for at the ensuing November election, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 50 votes cast for Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876, and one delegate for every fraction of 25 votes. Upon this basis the several townships and districts will be entitled to delegates as follows:

Decatur—1st District	8	Long Creek	2

By order of the committee.
JAMES C. LAKE, Chairman.

THE truth of history compels us to state that there was no such thing as "a good speech" heard at the court house last night.

"WHY, it was a regular lovefeast," said a Republican to-day, in referring to the tabernacle meeting of last evening. So say we all of us.

BY the same system of enumeration which discovered only 500 people at the tabernacle last night, the "crowd" at the court house would have footed up about 58.

THE Ninth District Republican convention is in session at Peoria to-day. Each county in the district, we believe, has a candidate, though the indications are that Enoch Emery will be the lucky man.

WHEN the name of Elder John W. Tyler was announced last night, as one of the vice presidents of the Garfield club, there was a loud and long continued outburst of applause.

THE schoolmaster has not been abroad in the land long enough, yet, to have much effect upon the average Democratic editor, who continues to get off examples in false syntax like this: "He spoke most eloquent of Stephen A. Douglas."

SOUTH CAROLINA is going back to her ante-war glory. Duels are becoming pleasingly frequent, and in one which took place in Camden county on Monday "Cunnel" Cash killed "Cunnel" Shannon. The whole state is in a perfect whirlpool of delight over this glorious revival of the era of chivalry.

THERE is no manner of sense in a man telling a lie when a thousand people right around him know it to be a lie. When the fiction writer of the corset organ says there were only 500 people at the tabernacle last night he merely puts himself in a place where 1,500 men and women absolutely know that he has been violating that commandment about lying.

EVERYBODY in Decatur to-day is laughing over the sublime exhibition of cheek displayed by the Democratic organ in its accounts of the two meetings of last night. There never was a finer opening meeting in any campaign than that held at the tabernacle last night, and there never was a more woe begone, sickly and insipid affair than that which dragged the slow hours away at the court house. The Republican meeting was a grand success; the Democratic attempt was a miserable failure, and [illegible] two facts are generally understood in town.

Garfield the Trained Statesman.

Syracuse Evening Herald (Ind.)

A president, as the democrats themselves have contended ever since General Grant changed his politics, should be above all things else a statesman. A knowledge of other than purely civic affairs is not, of course, a disqualification, but neither is it a requisite. The officer who holds the scales between congress and the people, whose veto or approval of a measure is equal to a couple of hundred legislative votes, who is beset with appeals for or against causes the inward character of which is revealed only by the keenest scrutiny, whose freedom of action is hedged about by numberless direct and indirect constitutional restrictions—such an officer ought to be one competent to solve state problems and willing to recognize the delicacy of others which require laborious study. General Garfield, by his professional training, as well as by his long experience in the popular branch of congress, is fitted for just this sort of work. He has read and thought much on questions of finance, commerce and international law. He has acquainted himself with the remarkable history of the last twenty years by helping to make it.

Too Much Superb Soldier.

Richmond Commonwealth, (Dem.)

We have seen evidences of a disposition to parade before our people the times and places when General Hancock, in command of the Federal forces overthrew the Confederate forces. We hope this will be discontinued. Our people have no hankering after crow, however it may be dished. The victories that General Hancock gained over our soldiers constitute no ground for appealing to them to vote for him. We were in earnest in that war, and its memories are tender and sacred to us. We are willing to refer to his achievements for the purpose of showing that he always stood to his duty, whatever might be the situation, that men may learn from the past what his course will be in the future. But over all else the veil should be drawn.

Was the War Useless?

From the New York Tribune.

The South is solid and enthusiastic for Hancock because of his conduct in Texas and Louisiana after the war. They say he accepted Southern rather than Northern ideas then, and he can be depended on to do the same thing again. The Northern Democratic journals are sustaining this view with quotations from Andrew Jackson, warmly commending Hancock for his course. This is probably a sure way to consolidate the Democratic vote, but what will be the effect upon the independent voter? Does he wish to see the Government in the hands of a man whom the Democrats claim is first, last and all the time a sympathizer with solid Southern ideas of the constitution? If they are right in those ideas, then the war was useless.

Unpleasant Recollections.

New York Tribune.

Judge Trumbull is having a bilious time of it in running for Governor of Illinois on the Democratic ticket. His record as a salary-grabber came up, or rather was brought up by the Democrats, to bother him first, and now wherever he turns he finds this sentence from one of his speeches in the Senate in 1873 staring him in the face: "The Democratic party has never yet done an act that would commend it to the favorable consideration of the people of the United States, but on the contrary its traditions and its acts are now and ever have been a standing menace to the progress and civilization of the nineteenth century." That is as true to-day as it was in 1872, but it is not, nevertheless, a stimulating Democratic battle cry.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH at Indianapolis borrowed $8,000 of Wm. H English in 1876, at 10 per cent. In 1878 he refused to reduce the rate to the figure then prevailing, or to take the money and release the mortgage. Now, the interest being slightly in arrears, he threatens to foreclose.

A Catholic Congratulation.

The following needs no editorial comment:

NEW YORK, June 24.—"GENERAL WINFIELD S. HANCOCK—Beloved Son: I tender congratulations upon your nomination. The children of your illustrious namesake and your own were reared in our holy church. May the teachings they have imbued lead you wholly within our fold, and may the earnest prayers of the faithful place you in the highest position in the republic. Affectionately and fraternally,
JOHN, Archbishop,"

"MR. P. J. HAYES," says the New Haven Journal, "was one of those who shook hands with the president at the City Hall yesterday. He was introduced by the Mayor. He had ten of his children outside with his wife, and in greeting the president informed him that he was the father of twenty-one children—all Hayeses. The president congratulated Mr. Hayes on his numerous family, expressing the belief that the Hayes family was promising well."

Choosing Electors.

The members of the republican national committee are solicitous that nominations made for presidential electors shall be carefully considered in all the states, in order that there may be no ground upon which the democratic congress may claim that they are disqualified, as the counting is altogether in the hands of the democrats. It is certain that all technicalities will be regarded which will secure the rejection of a republican elector. It came out during the last electoral count that few national elections had been held when electors on one ticket or the other had not been chosen who could not have strictly been adjudged as disqualified. The committee will take pains to have proper information of this subject promptly and widely circulated.

Gen. Grant's Income.

From the New York Hour.

The entire property of Gen. and Mrs. Grant yields them an annual income of $9,000. During the trip around the world, the expenses of the presidential party were at the rate of $25,000 a year, a serious encroachment upon the ex-President's capital. Luckily, however, young Grant who lives in New York and is a director in several mining companies, speculated so prudently and successfully on his father's behalf, that a welcome addition was made to his income. During the first two months of this year Grant, Jr., made $16,000 for his father, mostly in Chrysolite.

THE more the history of General Hancock's career while he was in command at New Orleans in 1867 is examined, the easier it is to understand why he was nominated for President by the Cincinnati convention. The entire tendency and effect of his official acts then was to crush out the loyal Union men, white and black, and to give the ex rebels the political mastery. This is why the South, which pressed him for the nomination at Cincinnati, has confidence in him. The Southern brigadiers are aware that, should he become president, they would have "a friend at court" whom they could always rely upon.—Chicago Journal.

TOLEDO, July 7.—Wheat $1.02½ cash, 98 cents July. Corn 39⅞ cents.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Official reports from Virginia give the facts of the existence of a Ku-Klux organization in that state, calling itself the "Southern Regulators." It operates in secret, by means of horrid disguise and by warnings, whippings and murder. Included among its victims are honest and reputable white citizens, whose only offense is their political opinions. The Department of Justice has taken prompt cognizance of these outrages. When identified the members of the klan are indicted and arrested, but their co-conspirators get them out on bail and they escape. The laws and the forms of justice are defied and turned into a farce.

It is the opinion of well-informed persons that this is only the beginning of a repetition of the Ku-Klux Klan methods adopted at the last presidential election throughout the South to terrorize white and colored republicans from exercising the right of suffrage. The official authorities here will, of course, do their utmost to repress and punish the guilty ones, but without the co-operation of the state and local authorities they can do but little in that direction.

CHARLESTON, S. C. July 6.—Col. E. B. C. Cash, of Chesterfield, killed Col. Wm. M. Shannon in a duel yesterday.

Specials to the News and Courier say the duel took place at Dubosse's Bridge on the border of Camden county. Shannon, the challenging party, fired first, the ball striking the ground near Cash's feet. Cash then fired, and the ball passed through Shannon's heart. Death was instantaneous. Col Shannon denied to the last having reflected on Mrs. Cash in the legal proceedings which caused the trouble, and challenged Cash on account of the latter's abusive publications concerning him. Shannon was a lawyer of high character, and leaves a large and dependent family.

The meeting took place at 2 o'clock yesterday. The fatal duel was the outcome of a controversy between Col. E. B. C. Cash and Capt. H. L. DePass and Col. Wm. M. Shannon. DePass and Cash made arrangements to fight, but did not meet, in consequence of the arrest of the former. Shannon was challenged by Mr. Clinchy, one of the parties to the controversy, but the challenge was refused. Cash then published Shannon as a coward, and out of this it is supposed the meeting arose. The difficulties above mentioned has led to the formation of the Camden Anti-Dueling Association. Col. Shannon was about sixty years of age, and universally beloved and respected.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The Executive Committee of the National Greenback-Labor party met here to-day. Present, Thomas H. Murch, of Maine, chairman; Lee Crandall, of Washington, secretary; E. Howe, of New York; Col. Geo. E. Jones, of Albany, and Jesse Harper, of Illinois. Gen. Weaver, of Iowa, candidate for President, was also present. Measures were discussed looking to an active campaign. General Weaver starts on a southern tour in a few days, and will open the campaign at Dallas on the 15th.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Supervisor of Census Wright having completed the taking of the census of Chicago, he gives 502,845 as the actual population of the city. The only changes in this total will be made by the possible discovery of errors in the footings of the enumerators and bureau officials, and probably will not make a difference of over a hundred either way.

NEW YORK, July 6.—But comparatively little change has been made in the bodily appearance of Dr. Tanner, who is now on the ninth day of his attempted forty-days fast. He has lost some fifteen pounds, and is a little weaker, but no serious symptoms of breaking down are as yet apparent. He converses sparingly with visitors. He gargles water, but drinks none, and his pulse is quite regular. The doctor is still quite confident that he will succeed in his task.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

6,000 FEET ABOVE THE SEA.

The following testimonials are from Messrs. J. D. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., large and influential druggists. They report unprecedentedly large sales and universal satisfaction. No other disease is so alarmingly prevalent in that region. They speak of the following gentlemen as among their best citizens:

SORELY AFFLICTED.

J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen,—Prompted by a fellow-feeling for those afflicted with Catarrh, I wish to add my testimony in behalf of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been sorely afflicted with this fearful disease for four years, and have tried every known remedy without avail, until I bought a bottle of the above CURE from you, which gave me almost instant relief. It being a constitutional as well as a local remedy, I believe it to be all that is claimed for it, a Radical Cure for Catarrh.
Very truly yours, WM. AMETIVE,
Denver, Sept. 25, 1875. with Jenson, Bliss & Co.

GREATLY AFFLICTED.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver: Gentlemen,—I take pleasure in recommending SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH to all who are afflicted with this disease. I was greatly afflicted with it for a long time, and cured it with two bottles of the above CURE. About a year afterwards I was again taken with Catarrh quite severely, and immediately sent for another bottle, which fixed me all right, giving me relief from the first dose. I am confident that this remedy will do all that is claimed for it, and more too. Wishing you success in its introduction, I am very truly yours,
A. W. SMITH,
Denver, Oct. 4, 1875. of Smith & Doll.

TRIED EVERYTHING.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen,—I have used SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I have tried almost everything, and it is the only thing that has given me relief. I therefore take pleasure in recommending its use to all afflicted with Catarrh of any kind, and offer this as my testimony to its benefits.
Very truly, W. S. DECKER.
Denver, Oct. 1, 1875.

REV. J. H. WIGGIN SAYS:

One of the best remedies for Catarrh, say the best remedy we have found in a lifetime of suffering, is SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. It is not unpleasant to take through the nostrils, and there comes with each bottle a small glass tube for use in inhalation. It clears the head and throat so thoroughly that, taken each morning on rising, there are no unpleasant secretions and no disagreeable hacking during the entire day, but an unprecedented clearness of voice and respiratory organs.—Rev. J. H. Wiggin, in Dorchester (Mass.) Beacon.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, James B. Millison and Ann G. Millison, on the 15th day of March, 1877, made their certain deed of trust whereby they conveyed to Jerome B. Anderson the following described real estate, situate in the county of Macon and State of Illinois, to-wit: Lot No. four (4), in block No. three (3), of the 3rd Rolling Mill Addition to the City of Decatur, to secure payment of one promissory note of said James B. Millison of even date therewith for the sum of three hundred dollars, payable one year after date to the order of Samuel Anderson, Sen., with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, which deed of trust is duly recorded in the Recorder's office of said Macon county, in book C, page 40.

Said deed of trust provides that, if default be made in payment of said note when due, on application of the legal holder thereof the said Jerome Anderson, after publishing notice thirty days in some newspaper published in the City of Decatur, Macon county, State of Illinois, shall sell the above described premises at the west door of the court house in Decatur;

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, and the legal holder thereof having made application to the undersigned to advertise and sell said premises, now, therefore, notice is hereby given that I shall, on

at 10 o'clock a. m., offer the above described premises for sale at the west door of the Court House, in the City of Decatur, Macon county, Illinois, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, and will make to the purchaser at such sale good and sufficient deed of conveyance of said premises.

The undersigned is informed and believes that Mrs. E. S. Augst, Willie O. Mabb, Edward Dodwell, Jr., and Robert Mehaffey have or claim some interest in said premises subject to said deed of trust.

ONE of the latest and cutest Decatur inventions is a very desirable and useful attachment for inkstands of any size or pattern, which the inventor, John C. Latshaugh, book-keeper at George Priest & Co's mill, has just received his letters patent. It is a novel contrivance and must be seen to be fully appreciated. The attachment consists of a lid for the top of the stand which always protects the ink from dust and dirt and the invasion of flies and other pests. When one wants to refill his pen with ink, all he has to do is to press the little finger of his right hand on a little lever, and the lid flies up, and with the same hand the writer can dip his pen into the ink, supply his pen and then go on writing. On removing his finger from the lever the cork-lined lid drops, completely covering the hole in the stand. Mr. Latshaugh has not yet decided to manufacture his invention, but when he does no doubt the attachment will find a ready sale.

ON the morning of August 5th, 1879, it will be remembered that the residence of Mr. C. M. Imboden, this city, was burglarized of watches, jewelry and silverware to the amount of about $400. Now we are gratified to state Marshal Baker is on the track of the supposed burglar whose name appears to be Joseph Billis, who was working in Decatur at the time the burglary was committed. Some time last March, Marshal Baker being notified of the recent theft of several watches, had a lot of postal cards printed and sent them to a large number of towns, Pana included. He also gave a description of two gold watches and the jewelry stolen from Mr. Imboden. On Monday morning the marshal was notified by Policeman Webber, of Pana, that there was a gold watch there in the possession of Joseph Billis, a supposed burglar, with the number 7604 on the case and movement number 79,311, valued at $100. The marshal immediately notified Mr. Imboden of the fact, and on going to the jewelry store of W. R. Abbott & Co., where the watch was purchased, it was learned beyond a doubt that the watch in question was the one stolen. Yesterday Policeman Webber came to Decatur with the watch and satisfied himself that the watch belonged to Imboden. This forenoon Mr. and Mrs. Imboden went to Pana to identify a chain found in possession of Billis. The Pana officer got trace of the watch on discovering a boy who was employed by Billis, trying to sell other jewelry. They got a warrant and searched Billis' house, and among other jewelry found was the Imboden watch sewed into the lining of an old hat hanging on a nail against a wall. Billis has been living at Pana for some months with a woman whom he claims to be his wife. The marriage certificate states that they were married at Stapp's Chapel, this city, but there must be some discrepancy somewhere, as the document is dated "1800," long before the church was built, and a few years prior to the pastorate of Rev. G. W. Miller. Billis is now in jail at Pana, and it is supposed the discovery of the watch will eventually lead to the recovery of most of the valuable goods stolen from Mr. Imboden's residence, and the punishment of the burglar or burglars.

M'LLE MARIE LITTA will appear in a grand selection from Faust at the concert at the tabernacle Monday night, July 12.

Death of Chas. W. Allen.

DIED.—At his late home near Harristown, this county, on Tuesday, July 6th, 1880, of consumption, CHARLES W., son of D. Skillman and Amanda D. Allen, aged 25 years, 7 months, and 20 days.

The funeral will take place from the Christian church at Harristown on Thursday afternoon, July 8th, at 3 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

The deceased was a graduate of the Illinois Industrial University, and after he left that institution he studied law for a time at the Michigan State University, but becoming ill he was compelled to return home where he received every attention that medical skill could suggest or money supply. He was a very promising young man, and had he been permitted to live would have made his mark in the world.

"Standing room only, and not much of that!"—Providence Journal.

"Exquisite in conception and execution."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Rich in enjoyment. Entirely free from that which is objectionable."—Philadelphia Record.

"The company is one of the best the great variety manager has ever brought to this city."—North American.

"The performance was a grand one throughout."—Albany Press.

There are 30 specialty artists with the company this season. Popular prices.

The Corset Club Meeting.

A slim representation of the few Democrats who compose the Corset Hancock and English club of Decatur, was present at the mossback meeting at the courthouse last night. The Democratic organ states that "every available seat was occupied," and by actual count there was exactly 327 chairs all told in the room, and our reporter who was present last night can truthfully state that many of the chairs were unoccupied, and the vacant chairs grew more numerous as the meeting drew to a close. The meeting was addressed by Edward Lynch, of Lincoln, I. A. Buckingham, of Decatur, and Jacob Frick, of Macon. There was an entire absence of anything like enthusiasm, except when the speaker commenced to abuse and villify the Republican leaders, and then the gullible listeners manifested evidences of approval and delight. Mr. Lynch thought it would be nice to give Mr. Douglas a personal stab, but Mr. Douglas and his friends still live, and his effort fell exceedingly flat even among his auditors. The meeting was in truth a thin, insignificant affair, but was as largely attended and as enthusiastic as any meeting the Corset club can get up in Decatur on any occasion.

THE FIRST GUN A BOOMER

Grand Rally of Republicans at the Tabernacle Last Night.

A Speech of Stephen A. Douglas, and the Organization of a Garfield and Arthur Club of 800 Members.

Fifteen Hundred People in Attendance.

One of the largest and most respectable assemblages ever seen within the walls of the tabernacle was that which gathered there last evening as early as 7:45 o'clock to hear the advertised speech by Stephen A. Douglas, Jr., son of the Little Giant, and participate in the organization of a Garfield and Arthur club for the campaign of 1880. While the crowd, which was made up of fully 1500 stalwart Republicans, and a large number of ladies, was assembling, the Decatur Band played several stirring selections in front of the tabernacle, and afterward appeared on the stage and rendered a parting piece.

At this stage of the proceedings the speaker of the evening entered the hall, accompanied by John Ullrich, Jason Rogers, and others, and as he passed up the hall he was greeted with thundering applause, which did not subside until he had taken his seat on the stage. Mr. Douglas is a young man, not more than 29 years of age, and in 9 some respects resembles his illustrious father very much. He weighs 230 pounds.

The exercises of the evening opened with a song commencing, "God Bless Our Native Land," by the Garfield Glee Club, Messrs. L. L. Ferriss, Dr. Bunstead, C. B. Prescott and H. H. Crea, the last named gentleman manipulating the organ.

At the conclusion of the song Hon. A. T. Hill called the meeting to order, and on motion Dr. E. W. Moore, was chosen temporary chairman.

The Doctor expressed himself as highly gratified on beholding such a vast audience present on such an important occasion. He then briefly reviewed the eventful history of the Republican party, and when he mentioned the name of the lamented Lincoln, the applause was almost deafening.

On motion of J. A. Barnes, the meeting elected John T. Montgomery temporary secretary.

On motion the chairman appointed Messrs. Edwin Park, J. R. Mosser and N. S. Haynes as a committee on constitution for the club.

On motion E. P. Vail, C. M. Imboden and George P. Hardy were appointed a committee to select officers for the permanent organization of the club.

Song—By the Glee Club.

On motion of Gen. Moore, the permanent organization of the club was postponed until after the speech of the evening; whereupon the chairman introduced Mr. Douglas in the following words:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—I now have the distinguished honor of introducing to you a living representative of that great, renowned, honored patriot and statesman, Stephen A. Douglas. [Loud and long continued applause.]

As Mr. Douglas stepped to the front he was greeted with a most cordial reception. He spoke deliberately for one hour and ten minutes, as follows:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.—"It is with peculiar pleasure that I have the honor to-night of appearing before an audience, many of whom remember my father and knew him personally. You can scarcely tell how gratifying it is to a son to think and to know that after he has rested quietly in the grave for nineteen years, that he is so kindly, so warmly—I may say so tenderly—remembered by this people, and that on his account you should greet his son with that heartiness which you have shown me." The speaker was born a Democrat, and in his youthful days the name had a peculiar sound to his ear.—He was ashamed to confess that in his youthful moments St. Peter, St. Paul and General Jackson were all mixed up together, with the odds decidedly in favor of General Jackson. (Applause.) He then believed in total depravity and universal damnation so far as the Republican party was concerned. At that time he did not know what the Lord created the party for or why he permitted it to exist. He believed that it was sent as a bitter trial to the saints—"and it has been a fearful trial!" (Great laughter.) In his youth he was a Democrat—a Douglas Democrat; before he had attained his majority he attended a Democratic meeting, and when the meeting broke up, the crowd gave three cheers for Jeff Davis; that act didn't sound right to him, and before he was 21, he had been converted to Republicanism, and the more discretion he got the better Republican he became. The speaker then gave a sad word picture of the evil deeds of the Southern bull-dozing Ku-Kluxers, and recounted scenes of which he had a personal knowledge—terrible and revolting deeds committed within the boundaries of Rockingham Co., N. C., where he lived. The wife of an honest, hard-working negro was killed outright, and the husband mercilessly flogged by a disguised band of white-handed ruffians, now called democrats. Another poor negro was hung up in the very heart of a town in an adjoining county, and his glassy eyes shone upon his murderers and their wives as they passed along the streets to church on a Sunday summer morning. Some of the murderers who were identified were arrested and tried, but Southern "justice" to the blacks set them free and they are now at liberty yelling for Hancock. Those scenes—all facts—made the speaker a Republican. The principles that made his father a Democrat are now discarded and denounced by the adherents of that party. The speaker then facetiously alluded to the Chicago convention, and when he pronounced the name of General Grant there was the greatest enthusiasm, the audience cheering for several minutes. Mr. Douglas was a delegate to the Chicago convention, and was a strong Grant man. He woke up one morning enthused for Grant and when he went to bed that night he cheered for Garfield, the soldier and statesman, a man thoroughly qualified for the exalted position of President. (Cheers.) From 1868 down the Democrats have been afraid of a soldier candidate for President. Garfield is a soldier, a statesman, a leader among leaders. The Democrats have adopted the mud-throwing plan for 1880. They are better qualified to do that thing than anything else; and the friends of that party gulp it all down as gospel truth, which led the speaker to remark that the Democrats were better qualified to become Christians than any class of people he could call to mind, because their faith was so great—they could believe anything so easily, no matter how unreasonable it was! (Laughter.) The speaker then made laughter-provoking hits at Hancock and his routine army habits for the past 40 years. He declared that it was not the Union soldiers that nominated Hancock at Cincinnati, but the ex-confederate soldiers of the South, led by the brigadier delegates from Louisiana. Hancock has no army or political record, and is simply put up as sauce for the northerners. He is the candidate of a notorious flopping party, but he cannot purify it—the Lord, and the Lord only, can do that. The Democratic party of to-day is the same that it has been for the past 20 years, and the Republican party—the party that broke the back of damning slavery and wiped it out, that has pensioned the preservers of the Union, that has built our railroads, the great civilizers, that has brought the United States to the front as the country on earth, that has given us an unsullied financial reputation at home and abroad, that has given us first-class credit and standing with all nations—is the same it has always been, honest and progressive. Every American is proud of his country, and the party that preserved our nation should be kept in power, as it surely will be, that important pending measures may be fulfilled and carried out, and if the opposition want to be recognized by a freedom-loving and progressive people, they must be born again. (Applause.) The speaker concluded by thanking his hearers for their kind reception and respectful attention and took his seat amidst great applause.

Song—"Marching through Georgia," by the Glee Club.

THE CLUB.

Edwin Park then read the following constitution and by-laws for the government of the Garfield Club which were adopted:

CONSTITUTION OF THE GARFIELD AND ARTHUR CLUB OF DECATUR TOWNSHIP IN MACON COUNTY, ILLINOIS:

ARTICLE I. This Association shall be known as the GARFIELD AND ARTHUR CLUB OF DECATUR.

ART. II. Its object shall be to secure by all honorable means, the election of the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States.

ART. III. Its officers shall be a President, as many Vice-Presidents as it may choose, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform all the duties usually appertaining to such offices, respectively. They shall be chosen at the time of the organization of the club, and shall hold their offices until the close of this campaign.

ART. IV. As soon as practicable after the formation of the club, the President shall appoint an Executive Committee of seven members, whose duty it shall be to have charge of all the interests of the Association generally, and to see that all its orders and resolves are faithfully executed. They shall provide for meetings of the club, for the collection of all money, and no liabilities shall be incurred except by them or the President of the club. It shall also be their duty to encourage the organization of other Garfield and Arthur Clubs in the different townships of this county.

ART. V. The meetings of this club shall be held at such times and places as it, or its Executive Committee, may determine.

ART. VI. It shall be the duty of the members of this club to attend its meetings and to promote the object of its organization.

ART. VII. Any male person over eighteen years of age may become a member of this club by signing this Constitution, or authorizing the same to be done for him, therein announcing his intention to support the object for which this club has been organized.

ART. VIII. In addition to his other duties, the Secretary shall report to Daniel Shepard, Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, at Chicago, Illinois, the names and addresses of the officers of this club upon the organization being effected.

On motion Secretary Montgomery was instructed to copy the names of the 800 signers to the published call which appeared in the REPUBLICAN on July 3d, 5th and 6th, and all Republicans were invited to sign the roll.

E. P. Vail, Esq., then read the names of the permanent officers of the club, as follows:

President—W. C. Johns.

Secretary—John T. Montgomery.

Treasurer—B. O. McReynolds.

Executive Committee—John Ullrich, James Millikin, J. R. Mosser, Wm. B. Chambers, N. S. Haynes, J. C. Lake, Wm. Dodson.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Altogether the meeting was a grand success, and a splendid starter for the Republican campaign of 1880 Mr. Douglas held the closet attention of his audience to the close, by his happy hits and pointed illustrations. The Republicans of Decatur and Macon county were never better organized than they are this year, and will make a good showing on November 2d. They mean business. Join the club.

Stolen Money Recovered.

On Friday morning last, Barnes Bros. missed their tin box in which they kept their surplus money—then said to be one hundred and fifty dollars—mysteriously disappeared from behind the counter where it was usually placed. Sam Barnes was the first to miss it, claiming that there was no one in the restaurant but himself on the morning the box disappeared. The police were given the facts in the case, but had nothing to work on, as no suspicion was attached to anyone. On yesterday Sam Barnes went into the cellar under the restaurant, and while there happened to stumble on the missing box, which was covered up with a lot of rubbish. It at once flashed through Sam's head that the box had been stolen and secreted by Harry Freese, the fat boy attendant in the restaurant, whose home is at Springfield, and who had been in the employ of the firm for the past three weeks. The next move was to fasten the crime on young Freese, and to this end Officer Hewes was notified of the find.—Freese had been talking of going to Springfield, and had said he was going there on a visit next week. But in order to hurry things along and bring the affair to a speedy focus, Barnes told Freese that if he wanted to get off he would have to make his visit this week, as next week there were to be a couple of picnics south of town, and he would need his help in preparing refreshments for the occasions. This ruse was resorted to with the belief that Freese would start with the stolen money on his person. He made up his mind to go to Springfield on the 7 o'clock train this morning, and got $1 from his employers to meet expenses. Deputy Marshal Hewes went to the depot and got on the train, but Freese did not get on. When the train arrived at Water street it was flagged and stopped by Freese, and he got on and took a seat; the train pulled out, and when leaving the city limits Hewes placed his hand on Freese and placed him under arrest. The prisoner appeared terribly frightened, and gave himself away by asking the officer if he was wanted for stealing Barnes Bros.' money. Without searching the prisoner, the officer had the train stopped and Freese was taken to police headquarters, where he was searched. On his person were $55 in greenbacks and $73.50 in silver—$128.50 in all. The tin box in the cellar was found to be empty, and Freese confessed to having committed the robbery. He waived an examination before Justice Peake, and is now in the county jail. It was a pretty slick arrangement on the part of Barnes and Hewes, and no doubt they will divide the $50 reward offered and call it square, sending young Freese up the road to Joliet on his own confession.

New Appointment.

The undersigned has, this morning, July 7th, received a commission from the government, as "special agent" to collect the "statistics of manufactures" for the City of Decatur, Ill.

He is fully empowered to exact all the information required by law, and all information communicated to him will be held by him strictly confidential, and will not be put to any use which can possibly prejudice the interests of any individual or corporation.

The schedule of interrogatories prepared by the department, are in conformity with the above.

MARRIED.

In this city, on July 30, 1880, by A. W. Palmer, J. P., Mr. DAVID A. CATTELL, of St. Louis, Mo., and MRS. SADIE E. KANE, of Cleveland, Ohio.

THERE will be a S. S. Congress under the auspices of the American S. S. Union at Hillsboro, Ill., July 28. It will be held at the fair grounds, and it is hoped to gather ten thousand Sunday school workers there. Among the principal speakers are Judge J. J. Phillips, of Hillsboro, and Dr. Goodwin, of this city.

General Grant Gives it Away,

And reveals the plot by which he was to be put in possession of the White House.

he plan rendered abortive by the failure to nominate at Chicago. "WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5, 1880—The city is wild with excitement over a report that Gen. Grant has made a complete revelation of the plot devised by his political friends to seat him in the White House after the next election. Anticipating its full disclosure after the fiasco at Chicago, he determined to make a full statement in order to free himself from the imputation of complicity in the plot. The general nature of the plot was as follows: Sometime last winter there was a meeting of the arch conspirators and a grand coup d'etat was determined upon as follows: About the middle of Feb. 1881 the treasury was to be seized and the money used to raise a grand army of men, women and children to march to Washington on March the 4th, and place Grant in the chair. The only obstacle in the way seemed to be the bad roads and deep mud at that season of the year. An agent was despatched to every town of importance in the country and his report was that there was only one place where boots and shoes could be found in sufficient quantity, and variety of a sufficiently good quality and at low enough prices, and that was at the celebrated Boot and Shoe house of L. L. Ferriss, in Decatur, Ill. So it was determined to notify everybody at once of this place that no time should be wasted in getting themselves shod with the foot gear that would please them in every way—at Ferriss' Shoe Store—one price, plain figures."

WITHOUT THE USE OF DRUGS, ARE REQUESTED TO SEND FOR THE ELECTRIC REVIEW, AN ILLUSTRATED JOURNAL, WHICH IS PUBLISHED FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.

IT TREATS upon HEALTH, HYGIENE, and Physical Culture, and is a complete encyclopædia of information for invalids and those who suffer from Nervous Exhausting and Painful Diseases. Every subject that bears upon health and human happiness, receives attention in its pages; and the many questions asked by suffering invalids, who have despaired of a cure, are answered, and valuable information is volunteered to all who are in need of medical advice. The subject of Electric Belts versus Medicine, and the hundred and one questions of vital importance to suffering humanity, are duly considered and explained.

YOUNG MEN

And others who suffer from Nervous and Physical Debility, Loss of Manly Vigor, Premature Exhaustion and the many gloomy consequences of early indiscretion, etc., are especially benefited by consulting its contents.

The ELECTRIC REVIEW exposes the unmitigated frauds practiced by quacks and medical impostors who profess to "practice medicine," and points out the only safe, simple, and effective road to Health, Vigor and Bodily Energy.

BEST IS CHEAPEST!

LEWIS' CONDENSED BAKING POWDER

STRICTLY PURE!

We will give $1000.00 for any Alum or other adulteration found in this POWDER.

Indorsed by the Brooklyn Board of Health, and by the best chemists in the United States.

It is STRONGER than any Yeast Powder in the world.

It NEVER FAILS to make light bread when used as directed.

It is COMMENDED by every housekeeper who has given it a fair trial.

It is an entirely NEW INVENTION, without any of the bad qualities of soda or saleratus, yeast or other baking powders.

It has in itself a tendency to sustain and nourish the system.

Good food makes good health; and health is improved or impaired in proportion as the food we eat is nutritious or otherwise.

LEWIS' BAKING POWDER always makes good food.

One can of this is worth two of any other baking compound.

It makes bread whiter and richer.

More than half the complaints of bad flour arise from the use of common baking powders, which often make the best of flour turn out dark bread.

The most delicate persons can eat food prepared with it without injury.

Nearly every other baking powder is adulterated and is absolutely injurious.

This is made from Refined Grape Cream of Tartar, and is PERFECTLY PURE.

It makes the BEST, lightest, and most nutritious

BREAD, BISCUIT, CAKE, CRULLERS, BUCKWHEAT, INDIAN, AND FLANNEL CAKES.

A single trial will prove the superiority of this Powder.

Cost of Modern Armies.

London Globe.

A detailed comparison of the cost entailed by standing armies shows some very curious results, which the Constitutionel gives in a compact form. Among the great powers, England, of course, stands pre eminent for the extravagance of its expenditure, the annual cost of each man in the army being 3,500 francs or £140, while for the Indian army the cost per man is 1,800 francs, or about half. Next, but at a long interval, comes Austria-Hungary with an expenditure of about £51; then France and Germany, the latter of which countries spends £43 per annum per man. The other two great powers each spend a little less than Germany, but the difference is extremely small. Italy appears to pay just under £40 and Russia just over £38, which is, as it will be observed, not very much more than a quarter of the expense required by the British soldier. On the other hand, a table showing the proportion of money spent on the army to the general expenditure of the countries tells a very different tale, and almost reverses the positions on the list of the several European powers. It appears from the calculation made by the Constitutionel that there is paid toward the army in England and colonies only 14 per cent of the budget, and this percentage is the same in the case of Italy. Austria-Hungary occupies the next place, with a proportion of 19 per cent, and next come the two rivals, France and Germany, with a similar total of 21 per cent, Russia bringing up the rear with an expenditure of 29 per cent, or double that of England. It is estimated that the maintenance of the army costs annually to each head of the population about 6s 6d in Italy, 7s 4d in Russia, 8s 6d in Germany, 12s 4d in France, and 12s 6d in Great Britain.

THE BEST BED IN THE MARKET.

TRY IT AND BE CONVINCED.

No frame required, as we set the Springs in the slats of the bed and make them perfectly secure.

We adjust them to fit any size bed.
Most convenient, cleanly, and durable.
Made of the best Spring Steel Wire, finely coppered.
They are easily moved, as each slat can be lifted out separately.
They are not linked together ACROSS the bed.
Each side of the bed acts independently, thus preventing any "sagging" to each side.
We propose to have them thoroughly tested. Will call at your residence and leave on trial.
We guarantee satisfaction or no sale.
